

Camilla Burgess

Speech/Choral Speech Adjudicator

Camilla Burgess is the owner of Viva Voce Speech Arts studio in Vancouver, BC, where she teaches voice, speech and drama to students of all ages. She has more than ten years of experience in Speech Arts, as a teacher, student, and adjudicator. Camilla holds an ATCL in Speech and Drama from Trinity College London, and an ARCT in Speech Arts from the Royal Conservatory of Music. Camilla studied at Canada's National Voice Intensive, under Canada's foremost voice, movement and Shakespeare teachers, and continues to expand her knowledge and skills through voice and acting classes and workshops.

Camilla's work is based on the principles of Kristin Linklater, Patsy Rodenburg, and Authentic Movement.

Camilla holds an ESL teacher certification (CELTA) and has six years of experience working with ESL speakers, helping them speak with greater clarity, fluency and ease. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts Honours from Queen's University.

"I believe that to become fully actualized human beings, each of us needs to know our voice and use it to achieve our goals. What is life, without your voice being heard by others?"
